bindaas.artistg@gmail.com

Jury:

- The Art Award selection process is a completely transparent process undertaken by an accomplished panel of artists and curators.
- An academician registers and fills in their profile details online by email and sends their artwork image. The details are then checked, and Google image-check is used to verify that it is not a copy. Following this, the form is accepted and approved by our team.
- Each judge does the evaluation independently, and the sheets and pen drives are then collected from them, and the scoring data is entered into an Excel sheet and compiled. The awardees are then selected by sorting the total scores on the computer.
- The list of winners and award e-certificates is then sent to the respective Patrons' heads to sign. This certificate goes to the award winner, along with the BAG Award e-certificate and the e-catalogue.

Terms And Conditions:

- It is mandatory for the participants to fill out the correct information in the form along with their original work of art.
- The entry shall be considered valid only after the entry fee is deposited.
- All participants share his/her organization (institute/ college/ university) Identity Card for confirming that he/she is an academician.
- Participants also shared his/her organization's (institute/ college/ university) Logo for poster and catalogue design.
- If more than five participants register from the same organization. The registration fee will be 350 INR for each Indian participant and 15 $ for out of india participants.
- An academician can make multiple entries in different categories. He/she shall have to treat each entry as separate and pay a fee for each entry.

“Professor With Profession” International Online Art Competition & Online Exhibition 2026 will serve as a platform for artistic expression, showcasing the work of world-renowned academicians, while fostering a global community of creators and art lovers. We invite all art organizations to take part in this prestigious event and celebrate the power of art in connecting people across borders.
