Born in 1953, Malaysian male
Studied at Universiti Sains Malaysia.
Work as writer and graphic designer mainly in publications.

Author of 'The Malay House', Institut Masyarakat, Penang, 1987. 'The best book that I have seen on any indigenous architecture... I've seen no better examination of how a successful building type works. This is a brilliant book on a superbly adaptive vernacular house form' – Stewart Brand, Creator of 'The Whole Earth Catalog'.

Member of Urban Sketchers Penang, Penang Watercolour Society and Penang Art Society
I have always been interested in painting since I was young. I am self-taught. There are advantages and disadvantages. But self-learning in painting is so easy now with the Internet and You Tube which has democratised the learning of art. But finding your way is both challenging, exciting and difficult though you can learn so much from the masters. Finding your own solutions and signature style is the way to go for me. You can learn techniques from others but it is only with your own solutions to your painting problems that you will create your own style. It will reflect your vision, your technique, your strokes, your character and your strengths and even your weaknesses. That is your personal vision and statement. It is not a copy of nature or others, it is a reaction to nature mediated through one self.

Art to me is personal development and fulfillment. With it comes much joys and many sleepless nights. Always thinking of pushing further and breaking new ground. And if we can bring joy, happiness or meaning to others... that's the added bonus.
Thank you and just enjoy painting and be passionate about it, work hard at it and you will enjoy the fruits. And the fruits come from seeds that need cultivation, love and care

Olga Zelinska
Artist & Interior designer
Moscow

Born in Sukhumi, Republic of Abkhazia. Graduated from Sukhumi Art School, Abkhazian State University (as a bachelor of Arts). Since 2002 she lives in Moscow, works as an interior designer and artist. The main message of Olga's artworks is the eternal femininity. Defenseless and omnipotent, sensual, capricious reigns of femininity on all artworks leads directly into the soul, bypassing the frames of logic. The overall message of the author defines woman as a creator and divine parent of all things. Olga Zelinska has created a unique style that could contain complicated images of the fundamental questions of being. The complex technique requires a lot of time - every artwork takes about three months and even up to two years - for there are many layers within.
