Hernan Javier Munoz

Hyperrealistic Artist

Buenos Aires, Argentina

He was born on April 5, 1983 in Buenos Aires, Argentina. He graduated as professor of plastic arts at "Rogelio Yrurtia" school of art (1996-2000).

In 2001, he began working at the MOA agency under the Ministry of Environment and Public Space of the Government of the City of Buenos Aires restoring works of art and sculptures.

The artist defines himself as "Autodidact", having attended periodically since the age of 20 at the MNBA (National Museum of Fine Arts) to admire and learn from great artists such as Ernesto de la Cárcova, Edgar Degas, Angel Della Valle, Giacomo Favretto, Reinaldo Giudici and the most influential William Adolphe Bouguereau. Hence, his technique is based on imitating intuitively the palette of the great masters.

Today at 34, the artist creates from his workshop in Buenos Aires.

Munoz's style is based on figurative painting with a surrealist orientation. In his technique and composition, reality, dreams and levitating people or objects are mixed. The theme of his works refers to the soul, heart and mind that define his works as "Fantastic Realism".

Pierre Paul Marchini

Masters of Contemporary Art
Ajaccio, French

Originally from Ajaccio, Pierre-Paul Marchini enrolled in the 50 new masters of contemporary art, alongside masters such as Kandisky or Pollock, according to a work of art published in English by professionals in Italy (distributed in galleries of modern art, from collectors). Painter of abstraction and the informal, his geometric meanders translate the impulses of his soul. By diverting the theory of colors and exploiting each of the materials, it breaks with conventional canons.

Pierre-Paul Marchini goes beyond mere representation by diving into the pure psyche. The color is brought to its climax with great freedom. An international art critic, Salvatore Russo, writes about him: "His painting is characterized by the great genius with which the artist draws his lines. He is a painting with action. A painting, which strongly shouts situations, involving the modern man. A painting, which is emerging in contemporary art, and it is a great protagonist.

Pierre-Paul Marchini regularly exhibits in Parisian galleries and exhibited at Fiac in 2012. He won the 3rd prize in painting at the 2014 International Contemporary Art Competition. His works are listed in the 2015 edition of the artists' dictionary. contemporaries.

PROPOSED JURY

Svetlana Cameron

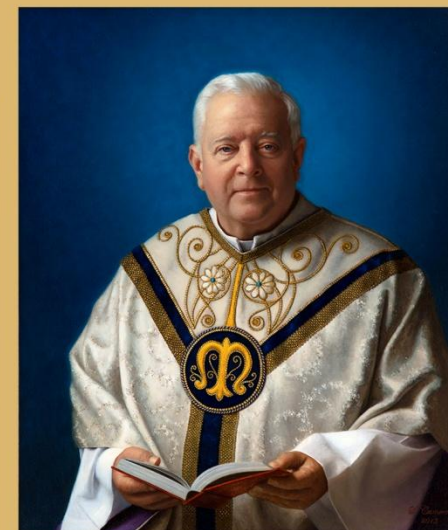

British portrait painter
United Kingdom

Svetlana Cameron is a Russian-born British portrait painter dedicated to the study and revival of classical art. Trained in the methods of Old Masters, she is known internationally for commissioned oil portraits of distinguished people and delicate lifelike portraits of children in pastel.

In 2016 Svetlana Cameron was named as one of Top 40 international Masters of Pastel by the publisher "Pratique des Arts" in France. She holds the title of a "Living Master" awarded to her by the Art Renewal Centre in the USA and is included in the ARC online museum of realist art. Three of her official portraits are part of the British national collection of oil paintings and are featured on ART UK.

Svetlana Cameron is based in East Sussex, UK, where she works out of her studio near Hastings. A much sought-after portrait painter, she travels internationally to exhibit and work with her sitters.

Giuseppe Petrone

Eminent Artist
Puglia, Italy

I was born in Italy, in a small town in Puglia, the 8th of October. Since I was a child I had a considerable inclination in art and design; I suspended this fondness at 14, to focus on studies and work.

In 2016 I started again developing and nurturing my great passion drawing with graphite and charcoal on paper.

I am self-taught, I've been tested and experienced several techniques and equipments throughout my way, I've always worked with perseverance and dedication trying to achieve excellence, and finally finding it in hyperrealism. In October 2016 I took a crash course in hyperrealism drawing technique, taught by the teacher Luca Tedde, becoming increasingly confident, competent and briefed.

In November 2017 I experimented also pastel painting technique, I attend an important workshop held by master Ruben Beloso Adorna, I found it very fascinating. In April 2018 I sat a competition, named "Ritratti contemporanei
